Stockholm · Marketing data platform. One of the first designers, helping build the design practice.

- Activate (0 to 1): designed a product that sends conversion data to 7 ad platforms, including Google, Meta and LinkedIn. Validated every release with design partners and supported the launch with sales materials and help content.
- Marketing Reporting: leading design for Dashboards, used by about half of Funnel's customers, and reimagining how people build them with AI.
- Product-led growth: designed Solutions Hub, connecting the website and the product so new users self-serve to value. Dashboard adoption grew 37% and sales-qualified leads 34%.
- Data integrations: redesigned the Google Analytics connection flow. Rated 4.5/5 in user tests, cut data-mismatch tickets by 30% and became the standard for all connectors.
- Advanced Measurement: made data science tools accessible to marketers and helped rebrand the product to Funnel's design system.
- Design system: created the product illustration system, with 15 animated empty-state illustrations and 2 components adopted across the product.
- Restructured the product navigation around how users think, and facilitated dozens of workshops, from discovery to design sprints.
